POBTLAND, Ore, Sept. 7.—The sum of $669,126 was presented on a gold alms basin by the women of the Episcopal Church this morning at a communion service held in Trinity Church. This offering, which is made triennially for the support of women missionaries in the field, is about $200,000 in excess of 1919. It is offered on a massive gold alms basin, presented to the American church by the University of Oxford and used only at this service. More than 1,200 women were present and many were unable to obtain admittance.

Bishop Daniel S. Tuttle officiated, assisted by Bishops William Lawrence, of Massachusetts, and Thomas F. Gallor, president of the executive council.
